

About Us

Merletti Gonzales International (MGI) is a certified U.S. veteran-owned small business. Lew Merletti and Ralph Gonzales have over 90+ years of combined experience in the United States Secret Service, military, law enforcement, and corporate security. MGI is a well seasoned, international and multifaceted company offering a range of services. We work across several industries, and in various countries worldwide. MGI has the capability and expertise to deliver customized solutions to our clients whether their needs are domestic or international.

What We Do

Corporate & Entertainment

Offering a wide range of services, MGI can augment your security department or provide a turn key solution. From security planning and training for corporations to protecting large entertainment venues, we are well versed to handle the task at hand and overcome any challenges.

Oil & Gas

MGI has extensive oil and gas experience overseas establishing security for foreign offices, operations in the field and remote areas. We are qualified in designing and executing security plans for facilities, pipelines and maritime operations. Also, included are customized crisis management and security planning. Our wide-reaching network spans the globe, supporting our mission.

Government Contracting

Across the globe, we partner with local and foreign governments to support their needs to deliver an exceptional level of service and continued support for the success of the mission. We offer comprehensive security planning for large scale country-wide operations, securing critical infrastructure and assets, government facilities, or providing assessments and planning for border and maritime security.

Supply Chain & Logistics

We acknowledge how imperative it is for corporations to have efficiency and flexibility when it comes to your supply chain, logistics and security needs. From import/export, CTPAT, supply chain security to logistics and more, we are well qualified to meet the needs of our clients.

Training & Planning

Whether you need help creating standard operating procedures or developing physical and technical security strategies and plans, our security team has the capability to meet your needs. We deliver comprehensive training packages customized to each client. Our seasoned team of instructors specialize in a variety of security initiatives.

Risk Management

MGI is accomplished in managing risk, strategic planning, assessments and implementing security mitigation measures in order to address numerous vulnerabilities. We have the experience to effectively address the risk landscape that can affect corporations across the globe. From Crisis Management, Active Shooter and Workplace Violence to Investigations and Due Diligence, we can support and secure your business.
